February 2009

Dear Friends,

Thanks to all who attended our February 11th meeting at Lima Estates! The food was delicious – thanks to Jane Young and her staff for the fantastic service.

Alfred Hurd gave an excellent presentation on the concept of a Performing Arts Complex right here in Delaware County, and who knows, maybe even Middletown Township!

A big thank you goes to The Shirley Booth Team, Prudential Fox Roach, Realtors and John Kelley and Susan Powell, Hollywood Landscaping for representing our featured businesses for February. We all went home with lots of goodies and know a lot more about what their businesses are all about. If you are interested in being one of our featured businesses, please contact Gary Scheivert at gary@garyscheivert.com and he will let you know which months are still available.

Mark your calendars now for Wednesday, March 11th. Williamson Trade School will host us the annual breakfast meeting. Check in time is 7:45 am. Breakfast served at 8:00 am. We will hear from Williamson's speakers.

In order to save over $500 each year in postage, we are going to start notifying members of upcoming meetings via email. In order to make sure that you receive them, please check our website and verify that your email address is correct. Also make sure that messages from our address don't go directly in your spam file. We will send out postcards for the March meeting.

Please note that the date of our April meeting has been changed to Wednesday, April 29th. Tentative plans are a tour of Wawa Dairy, lunch, followed by a tour of the Franklin Mint. Attendance is limited to 50. More details will follow.

I'm looking forward to seeing you on March 11th at Williamson. The coffee will be ready!

Sincerely,

Helene
