January 2009

Dear Friends,

I want to thank all who were able to make our January 8th meeting at Hennessey's. We had over 40 in attendance and Joe Gorman, VP of Finance at Neumann College, gave a great talk on the impact of the current economic crisis on higher education.

Our next luncheon meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 11th at Lima Estates. Our speakers will be Alfred and Eleanor Hurd. They will share their vision of a Performing Arts Complex here in Delaware County. Check in time is 11:45 am, lunch at noon. If you haven't been to Lima Estates recently, now's the time to see all of the beautiful new renovations.

Gary Scheivert is organizing two "featured businesses" at each of our monthly meetings. In February it will be Shirley Booth, Prudential Fox Roach and John Kelley, Hollywood Landscaping. This is a great way to get to know your fellow business owners. If you would like to be one of the featured businesses, contact Gary at gary@garyscheivert.com.

Virginia Falkenbach is doing a wonderful job with our website www.mtbpa.org. We now have a photo gallery and a section for member announcements. Please feel free to post something about your business. Believe it or not, that section has the most hits from viewers. We will have all of the latest information regarding meeting times and places available for you.

Hope to see you on February 11th at Lima Estates.

Sincerely,

Helene
