July/August 2009

Dear Friends,

As I am sitting here in Ocean City, New Jersey waiting for Hurricane Bill to move out, Larry and I were just saying it seems like yesterday we were at Peking for the Chinese dinner and before you know it, September 9th will be here for our regular monthly meeting. Where did the summer go!

Major Jack Laufer, PA State Police, will be our guest speaker on Wednesday, September 9, 2009 at Granite Farms Estates. Jack is a former Middletown resident and a 1979 graduate of Penncrest High School. His topic will be a history of the State Police and he will touch on issues in policing that might impact Middletown Township. Many of you may remember Jack as the "hero" who stopped Sylvia Seegrift on October 30, 1985 at the Springfield Mall deadly shootings. Sign in is 11:45 am.

On October 19, 2009, from 5 to 7 pm, we will have a joint meeting with the Aston Business Association at Barnaby's on Pennell Road. This is a great way to meet new people and also a good networking opportunity.

The new president of Williamson Free School will be our guest speaker on Wednesday, November 18th at Penn State Brandywine. Mr. Gardner has an extensive background that will be of interest to all.

Check our website www.mtbpa.org regularly for updates. Don't forget to let us know what you're up to! Many of you have already taken advantage of our "Member Announcements" section. We love to hear from you. See you on September 9th at Granite Farms Estates! Enjoy the rest(?) of your summer!

Sincerely,
Helene
